Tur iden of forming a mutual bonefit building society in this Colony is a novel one. At first sight it might not unnaturally appear that the scheme was impracticable in a community like this, but on second consideration it will be seen that such a project ... is not by any means so utopian as some people may imagine. In Great Britain, as is well known, building societies have proved a great success, and are especially popular with the artisan class, great numbers of whom have acquired small freeholds through He was immediately sent to the Hospital, their instrumentality. IMPARIAL QUARTOL ENGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. a Anglo-Onthese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong.

MOR comprehensivenus and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is T. Thuider. V. Bul threatening. V. Visibility W. Stern. fully illustrated and explained; forming exer-Z.Colos. The letters are repeated to indicate may increase over oldes for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronumenations are wrecked off Cape Horn of the 11th of Septem - The house of rale for the provious 24 hours (noon) are given, the accents being carefully marked on registered from 1 to 21 and the quantity of water fallen indicated in the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the sine of body; thereby effecting a vast economy of apace, achieving a clearness not PASTE SYRUPS, MARMALADE, SAUCES previously attained and dispensing with those &c., &c. Apply to vust margins and yacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work, the following facts are submitted for consideration. Julimers' Vocabulary contains about 18,000 Ohinese characters, and Medhurst's English Schnapps. Champagne Beer. Hostetter's, and Agents for the above Company, are present of the above Company, are present of the state of the above Company, are present of the state of the above Company, are present of the above Company of the ab words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese charactille. Again despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the PORK, BEEF, and UOD FISH. student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli-cations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples / 1HAS. HEIDSIECK'S CHAMPAGNE. this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto pub-

For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate offectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very fow indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in Uhian it cannot but be invaluable occasionally. It comprises upwards of two thousand large

A POOKETFUL. Our foraman, a few days since "went turough" the devil's pocket for a lost composing rule. The following is a correct list of the contents of the aforesaid young gent's pocket :- Two dozen marbles, one halt-dozen pieces of lead pencils about one inch in length, two fish lines, pecket comb, broken bladed pocket knife, bunch of keys, two firecoordance with th men's badges, dime novel, entitled "Roaring Ned; or, The Terror of the Plains," three copper coins, clay pipe, stale, about one inch long, broken eigar-holder, forn pocket handkerobief, a Punch and Judy whistle, six pieces of twine, a slate pencil, a sit of jackstones, one-half pair ten cent cuff buttons, two pantaloon buttons, one stick and half of candy and a sud of spruce gum. Here the search was given up, when the devil said, "Taio't in that pocket," and pulling off his boot produced the composing rule, saying at the same time, "My pocket leaks; I can't keep anything in it five minutes." -- Whitehall Times.
